

oor standing speaker SA1550

very powerful very discrete

Only as wide as a CD (13cm wide), the SA1550 is a truly slim loudspeaker that stands apart from the crowd. It is easy to place in any room and is ideal for both music and home cinema.

The SA1550 is a compact loudspeaker that generates a huge sound. It is perfect for everything from classical music to hard-hitting rock simply because the drive units are able to reproduce both the fine details and the raw energy of any type of music Full magnetic shielding also means it is superbly suited to your home cinema as the shielding allows the loudspeakers to be placed close to the TV.
